Local Department.

Dry-as-dust.

Hot, hotter, hottest.

Kalamazoo street has been nicely graveled.

Green peas are quite abundant in the markets.

Go and see the skaters next Saturday evening.

Capt. Smith has a new side-walk in front of his residence.

S. T. Bowen is improving and beautifying his elegant place.

Those are good raisins—California mus-cats—that Kirke sells.

Harry S. Richards, Esq., has been quite ill for a few days past.

The Free Baptist quarterly meeting was successful and interesting.

Jos. Davey is building a fine new residence. It will be a good one.

Paw Paw is better protected against fire than any other town in the county.

Amos Deming is remodeling his house and will have an elegant residence.

D. C. Lockman has a young Mambrino colt, said to be the finest in the county.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Eli Douglass, on Wednesday of last week, a voter. Is he for Blaine, Eli?

A Sunday school concert at the Presbyterian church, last Sunday evening, called out a large audience.

Drs. Andrews and Hilton attended the state medical society at Grand Rapids on Monday of last week.

New cross-walks are being put down, like contributions from a democratic bar, where they will do the most good.

The "village dads" have ordered another cistern to be constructed on Kalamazoo street, near the Woodman place.

B. Utter of Lawrence, recently met with quite an accident, by falling from a wagon and sustaining some severe bruises.

Eight strawberries of the Manchester variety, at Holmes & Spicer's, weighed five ounces. They were grown by Ph. Bragg.

Tom Nicholids dug a fine lot of new potatoes on Friday last, some of his own raising. Isn't he in advance of all competitors?

The person or persons who found a sword at or near Mrs. Shilling's residence, last Monday, are requested to return it to her, as it is a valued relic of the war.

Cassopolis rejoice in that it is to have a telephone office.

The Courier tells a whopper when it says it had a strawberry 4 1/4 inches in diameter.
Bro. Jordan probably meant the diameter around the berry, not through it.

Mr. Calvin Hall left a couple of baskets of his finest strawberries at our office last Saturday. One of them measured five inches in—not diameter—but circumference.

Charley Wernicke of Shoshone, Idaho, writes that he is the happy father of twin boys born Tuesday, June 10th, both of whom, like the father, are for Blaine and Logan.

Mrs. Eliza A. Bentley of Lamoni, Iowa, desires to return thanks to the residents of Prospect Lake who decorated the grave of her husband, David M. Bentley, on Memorial day.

A large audience assembled at the Free Baptist church, last Sunday morning, to listen to a fine sermon delivered by Rev. J.
S. Warren, pastor of the Covey Hill church, in Waverly.

"Observer," this week, is conspicuous by his absence. He attended the Kalamazoo races, and couldn't be expected to be in condition to write items. Just wait until he "sobers off."

The Bloomingdale Leader has entered upon its 4th volume and congratulates itself on its prosperity. We rejoice with you, at your success, Bro. Smith. "May you live long and prosper."

The summer meeting of the Chicago Driving Park will be held from June 20 to 23, 1884. We are indebted to the courtesy of the secretary, Mr. D. L. Hall, for a complimentary ticket.

The roller rink will be opened next Saturday evening, June 21st. An excellent floor has just been laid. Good skaters from abroad are expected, and no doubt a large crowd will be in attendance.

Rev. F. L. Rossiter of Kalamazoo, will preach the baccalaureate sermon, at the Opera house in this village on Sunday evening, June 22d. It will be a union service and everybody is invited to attend.

We have received No. 2 of the Young Folk's Library, "Maggie's Mission," published by D. Lothrop & Co. of Boston. The book is neatly printed and bound and contains over 400 pages, and is sold for 25 cents.

Base ball players are very much interested in watching the pertinacity with which the Detroiters cling to their position—at the foot of the column. It will indeed be a bad club that wrecks their place away from them.

"Honesty is the best policy." So says the old motto, and it is, doubtless, true. Nevertheless, it is not a good motto. The man who is honest simply because it is good policy, would be dishonest for the same reason.

Through the combined efforts of O. W.
Rowland and C. E. Galligan, Mr. A. J. Harrison, a disabled soldier of this place has had his pension claim allowed. He gets his arrears and will have enough to make quite a "nest egg."

The rhetorical exercises at the schoolhouse last Friday were very good indeed. A large number of our people were present to witness them. They were not prepared for a public exhibition, but only intended as a sample of everyday work.

Speaking of Helmer & Mann's great pavillion show, the Bloomingdale Leader rises to remark that "everyone was well pleased (except those present) and all went home satisfied—to remain there when a like combination strikes this town."

G. W. Owen's store at Keelerville, was burglarized a few nights since. The villains were interrupted in their efforts to gain an honest livelihood, and a futile attempt made to capture them. They succeeded in obtaining but little plunder.

Two weeks ago last Saturday Mrs. Josiah Haydon started for Gobleville, to all appearances in her usual good health. Shortly afterward a messenger arrived and informed Mr. H. that his wife was dying. She died very soon afterward. The cause of her death was disease of the heart.

A St. Joseph county thief, disregarding the majesty of the law, stole a team, wagon and 100 fleeces of wool from Thos. Cuddy, near Mendon. One hundred dollars reward is offered for information that will lead to his capture. The scoundrel evidently don't believe there should be any protection for wool.

Seventy-five cents will pay for the TRUE NORTHERNER for six months. That will be until after the close of the campaign. Everyone who feels an interest in political matters, both local and general, and all ought to feel such interest, should be a reader of this paper for the next six months. Now is the time to subscribe.

Ralph Richmond, late of Hartford, has rented the Dyckman house bar and opened a saloon therein, so that Paw Paw once more has four saloons. We had hoped that our public houses might have continued to run independent of the liquor business, but such, it seems, is not yet to be. The Union house is the only one left without a bar.

Capt. J. R. Hendryx, accompanied by his cousin, Mr. Hendryx of Sauk Center, Minn., called at our office, on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Unlike the Captain, Mr. H. is a staunch republican, and is the editor of a republican paper. He attended the Chicago convention, and improved the opportunity to visit relatives and friends in Michigan.

Clam Eagle beats them all on strawberries so far as heard from. He left a quart box on our table last Monday which contained just 20 berries, and it was rounded up as long as they would lay on. Eight berries weighed seven ounces. Several different berries measured 5 1/2 inches in circumfer-ence, and 2 1/4 inches in diameter, the longest way. Next.

At a meeting of the school board, held Monday evening, it was voted to engage the following corps of teachers for the ensuing year: For primary, Miss Kate Ochock; second primary, Miss Anna G. Dillon; first intermediate, Miss Dillie Dillie; second intermediate, Miss Mary Bryar; grammar room, Miss Josie Shaw; second assistant in high school, Mrs. Cora Martin; principal, Prof.
Russell. The position of 1st assistant in the high school is not yet filled. Mr. Dillon will remain as janitor.

Local Option.

A paragraph is going the rounds of the papers, stating that under the Act of 1883 relative to saloons in villages, every village has the right of local option. Desirable as this may be, it is not true. The law has no application to villages incorporated by a special charter, but only applies to those incorporated under the general act. There are about a hundred such in the state. Paw Paw is not in the list.
